PAWLNG, N. Y., July 23 — Gov Thomas E. Dewey and Gen Dwight D. Eisenhower discussed "the critical" European situation at a surprise conference here today.

Eisenhower, president of Columbia university, came to Pawling at Dewey's request. They discussed "European affairs and our military establishment," an aide of Governor Dewey said.

The visit of the World War II Allied supreme commander in Europe preceded by one day the scheduled conference here by Gov Dewey with Senator Arthur H Vandenberg and John Foster Dulles to discuss the foreign situation in general and the Berlin crisis in detail.

Dewey had made no prior announcement of the Eisenhower conference.

"Ike" and Mrs Eisenhower motored from New York City this morning They had lunch with the Governor and Mrs Dewey and were to return late today.

It was understood that Dewey sought Eisenhower's views particularly on the Central European situation

Eisenhower, prior to the recent national political convention, had been discussed as a possible candidate by both Republicans and Democrats. He made clear, however, that he would not accept either.

National Guard Patrol On Duty at Lancaster

By The Associated Press

LANCASTER, O., July 3—National Guard members patrolled flooded sections of Lancaster today after Gov. Thomas J Herbert received an appeal for protection against looters

Brig General Kenneth Cooper, assistant state adjutant general, released members of Lancaster's 86-man National Guard company for duty. Cooper said 35 to 40 men and two to three officers were ordered to the scene.

Earlier, Mayor Fred Von Stein proclaimed a citywide emergency He asked the people of Lancaster to cooperate with the Red Cross and other relief agencies working with city officials

Lancaster was struck early yesterday by a flash flood that followed heavy rains. Residents described it as the city's worst flood since 1913

Hocking River Overflows

The waters broke over the banks of the Hocking River, flooding the west side of Lancaster and centering in the Rosebank and Reese sections

Damage also was reported outside the city in Fairfield county and further south in the neighborhood of Rocky bridge in Hocking county

Damage in Lancaster and surrounding areas was set at more than $1,000,000 by R Kenneth Kerr, Red Cross disaster chairman and publisher of the Lancaster Eagle-Gazette.

Leon Wolford, Fairfield county engineer, said 20 to 30 homes in Revenge, a village in southwestern Fairfield county, were isolated when the storm wiped out two bridges leading to the village He said about 20 other families in the vicinity were cut off when the bridges broke

Health Precautions Taken

D L. Grove, city service-safety director, told persons in the flooded areas to boil all city water He said a six-inch main had broken during the storm and was being repaired by city workmen

Some sections of railroad track in the Lancaster area were washed out, but train service was resumed in mid-afternoon.

The West Side Lumber Co in Lancaster said its flood damages would run between $60,000 and $100 000

William D Akin, owner of the Fairfield Grease and Oil Co., estimated his loss to warehouse and stocks of goods in the neighborhood of $25,000

"Curious motorists" increased traffic on the already congested roads in the flooded areas, Lancaster Police Chief Sam Hutsler reported

The state patrol said state route 22 was the only highway out of Lancaster still closed.

Shelters Provided

A temporary shelter with 85 cots was established in the Sherman armory in downtown Lancaster by the Red Cross. They reported 20 people were housed there last night

The Salvation Army gave shelter to 14 persons

Grove said gas in homes in which basements were still flooded had been turned off He added gas was available in other parts of the city.

More than 100 of the city's service and safety department employes were ordered to work in the flooded areas tomorrow

The state highway department estimated flood damage to state roads and bridges in the five flooded counties at more than a half million dollars.

Highway Director Earl J. Reeb said reports of highway closing, washouts and bridge damages had been received from Fairfield, Washington, Noble, Hocking and Pickaway counties

He said damage around Lancaster in Fairfield county was approximately $60,000 The figure was set at $350,000 in Washington, Noble and Hocking counties Damage reports from Pickaway county were incomplete, but the figure was expected to run to more than a half million dollars.

A temporary replacement for a bridge on state route 22 on the outskirts of Lancaster was under construction, the highway department said. They said they were anxious to make the bride repairs because motorists were forced to make a lengthy detour by way of Columbus because of the missing bridge.

The department said high waters had also closed the following routes: 26, Washington county 145 and 260, Noble county, and 75 and 328, Hocking county.

OHIO SALES TAX CUT, PENSION RAISE VOTED

Legislature Enacts Herbert Program in Speedy Special Session.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 23—Ohio's lawmakers slept off their fastest special session in many a year today after 10 hours in which they approved Gov. Thomas J Herbert's three-point program The lawmakers ▶Trimmed $12,000,000 to $15,000,000 a year off the customers' sales tax bill by exempting all retail purchases under 41 cents, starting Aug. 1.

▶Raised the ceiling on payments to the state's needy blind and old age pensioners from $50 to $55 a month, with the federal government providing all the extra money, starting Oct. 1.

▶Appropriated $3,000,000 to the state welfare department for poor relief and $1,500,000 more for food and fuel for the biennium ending Dec 31, 1948 Including the $1,500,000 federal contribution to old age pensions, the total appropriation to the welfare department was $6,350,000.

Ready for Signature

All this was just what Gov. Thomas J Herbert asked for in his call for the special session—no more and no less It becomes law as soon as the officers of the general assembly sign the bills in today's skeleton session and as soon as Governor Herbert himself signs them.

Few changes—and these only in wording and not in substance—were made in any of the five administration bills. The business of lawmaking started yesterday afternoon and at 11:30 last night the senate turned out the lights with the new laws on their way to the printers.

Old-time observers of the legislature could not recall a special session in which so much legislating was done in so little time

No Additions Made

The most persistent efforts to amend the governor's bills came from big city senators, who tried to get more money for local governments into consideration The governor had refused to include any measure for this in his call

Cincinnati's senators tried unsuccessfully in a Republican caucus at the start of the senate session to amend the sales tax cut bill to divert the estimated $12,000,000 saving diverted to cities and counties The move collapsed, with Sen. Evert Addison (R-Franklin) explaining that the sponsors "couldn't answer a lot of questions their proposal raised." Addison was author of the bills to cut the sales tax and its companion, the three per cent use tax on articles bought outside of Ohio but used in the state

Sen Howard Metzenbaum (D-Cuyahoga) tried to put $12,000,000 more in the supplemental welfare appropriation bill for the local governments, but this died on the table.

Other Efforts Fail

Similar efforts were downed in the house. There the sales tax bill was passed by a vote of 86 to 22, and the use tax bill by 98 to 16. There were no dissents in any of the final senate moves.

The main opposition to the sales tax bill came from representatives of small merchants. They contended that the shopkeeper would have a hard time keeping track of what sales were for 40 cents or less and therefore not taxable, and what sales were for 41 cents or more and therefore taxable the same as always.

The new law permits spot checks by sales tax examiners to determine wether a storekeeper is collecting and turning in to the state the proper amount of sales tax revenues. Otherwise, he will be largely on his honor

State welfare department officials said almost all the state's 125,000 old age pensioners would be given the full $5 increase in their monthly payments. They now receive an average of $41.70 a month.

How Sales Tax Cut Will Operate

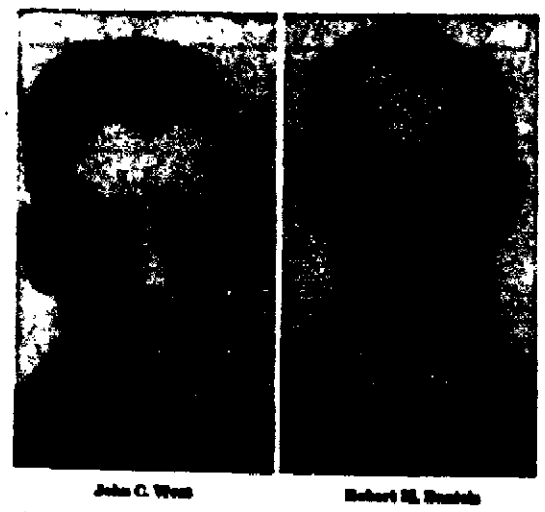
By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 23—Here's how the new reduced sales tax will work when it becomes effective Aug. 1:

No purchase up to and including 40 cents will be taxable.

All purchases from 41 to and including 70 cents will be taxed two cents; up to and including $1.00 will be taxed four cents; up to and including $1.40 will be taxed five cents. Purchases in excess of $1.40 will be taxed on the same ratio.



John C. West

Robert M. Daniels

West, a former resident of Parkersburg, W. Va., was arrested three times in Cleveland, the records show. The third time, he was returned to Akron where he was charged with grand larceny and sentenced to the reformatory on two counts He was paroled last March 31

Mansfield reformatory officials believe the pair became acquainted while serving time.

Daniels, son of a Columbus plaster contractor, has a police record dating back to 1941 when he was sentenced to the boys' industrial school in Lancaster for automobile theft

In 1943, he was sentenced to the reformatory after conviction on an unarmed robbery charge in Waverly Later, he escaped from the Grafton honor camp. He surrendered in Columbus, went back to Mansfield and was paroled in September, 1947.

Bullet at Scene

Officers Here Join Search

All Available Men in County Called in Huge Ohio Manhunt.

Every available law enforcement officer in Marion county was called to duty last night to take part in the statewide search for the "mad-dog" Ohio killers

The alert was sounded here after the murder of two more victims in the Tiffin area and was not ended until the slayers were captured this forenoon in northwestern Ohio.

All officers of the Marion substation of the highway patrol were called to duty at a road blockade north of Upper Sandusky at 11:30 p. m. last night. All time off for patrolmen was cancelled and all patrolmen on vacation recalled to duty immediately For the past 48 hours local patrolmen were on constant alert working a 24-hour day round the clock. Every service station, rail, bus, and airline station in the area had been alerted to be on the lookout for the killers. Police of all four railroads operating through Marion were asked by the patrol to join the search and all rail police forces here were added to the posse.

Patrol County Roads

For the past 36 hours Sheriff LeRoy Retterer and his deputies maintained a constant patrol of all back country roads and secondary and county highways, checking every car not known to be owned in the area where it is found. Every crossroads farmer, trucker, dairyman and county road worker covering the back country at odd hours of the day had been notified to report any stranger seen in the neighborhood.

City police checked every suspicious person or car seen or reported in Marion. The "double alert" ordered by Police Chief William E Marks continued today until the capture of the killers. Day shift cars and motorcycles joined the regular night cruisermen as Chief Marks left no stone unturned to forestall any attempts of the killers to hide in Marion. A police squad swooped down on a local grill room last night after police received a tip two suspicious looking men were seen there. A similar report of a tall furtive man, badly in need of a shave, acting suspiciously in the Greyhound bus station proved groundless. Another persistent rumor was that the killers were seen eating in an all night lunchroom here early this morning. This proved groundless.

The police alert did turn up some interesting incidents here, if not the killers. At 7:45 a. m. today a suspicious looking car was seen in front of the Cozy Corner Social club on Hocking street. Upon seeing the police cruiser the driver took off up Kenton avenue and cut into Silver street with the police car hard in pursuit. The chase reached an 80 mile an hour clip down Silver street when an unidentified car drove out of a cross street on Silver delaying the police pursuit. Seeing his advantage the driver of the car increased his speed only to lose control of his car, sliding almost a hundred feet down the street. Both cars were badly damaged

At 3 a. m. city police, in answer

Reign of Terror Brought to End In West Ohio

By The Associated Press

VAN WERT, O., July 23—Two youthful ex-convicts who terrorized Ohio with seven brutal slayings in the last 14 days, hit the end of their crime career today at a Van Wert county police road block. One was dead, shot between the eyes, and the other captured.

Two police officers were wounded in the wild flurry of rifle and pistol shots which ended the greatest manhunt Ohio has ever witnessed.

John C. West, 24-year-old bespectacled reformatory parolee from Parkersburg, W. Va., described as the "gun happy" member of the bandit pair, was killed.

His partner, 22-year-old Robert M. Daniels of Columbus, put up his hands and surrendered—and then confessed all seven of the killings which have kept the midwest in a two-week turmoil.

The highway patrol, local police, FBI and other officials had set up road blocks all over the northern half of the state after two more brutal killings early today, and the road blocks paid off

Van Wert county and city officials were stationed at a road block six miles northeast of here, where routes 224 and 637 meet

A driveaway truck, with four automobiles aboard, approached The officers stopped it for a routine check.

The driver of the truck came out of the cab, an army rifle blazing Sgt. L. D. Conn, 42, Van Wert policeman, went down with a bullet in his chest. Frank A. Priemuth, 56, county game protector, also fell with a bullet in his breast, the slug lodging in his arm.

Both officers, with Sheriff Roy Shaffer, blazed away with their guns despite the wounds, and Sergeant Conn finally hit the driver between the eyes with a machine gun bullet. The driver was identified as West.

As the firing ceased a man crawled from one of the four trucks on the driveaway, his hands in the air. He said he was Daniels, and the highway patrol said he admitted he and West had committed the seven killings for which they had been sought over 20 states the last two weeks.

Sergeant Critically Wounded

Sergeant Conn's condition was reported as critical at Van Wert hospital, and attaches there said West "could not possibly live."

No trace of the regular driver of the driveaway truck had been found, opening the possibility that he, too, may have been a victim of the killers in their search for transportation with which to evade capture in the ever-closing net which authorities had thrown around the up-state sector

The pair of gunmen hit the end of their trail only a few hours after they had killed the last two of their seven victims, farmer James Smith, 25, of Tiffin, who was slain as he sat in a car with his wife, and another man tentatively identified as Glenn Beard Gschwind, a 24-year-old Navy veteran of Fremont, whose body was found early today in a roadside park.

Fremont police said, however, that the victim was not Gschwind, who was reported at his home today. This left open the possibility that the body found in the roadside park was that of the authorized driver of the driveaway truck which the killers rode into their final roadblock here

Later an official of the Bolin Driveaway Co. of South Bend, Ind., owner of the truck in which the bandits met their finish, said he believed the seventh victim of the gunmen was one of their employes.

The official said Orville Taylor, about 24 or 25, of Niles, Mich., had left South Bend Thursday for Welch, W. Va., with four Studebakers on a driveaway truck. The driveaway in which the two bandits were captured carried four Studebakers A company official was enroute to Tiffin to view the body

The gray Pontiac car in which the killers launched their career 14 days ago by slaying Earl Ambrose, Columbus Tavern operator, was found beside the body.

Leave Bloody Trail

Following the Ambrose killing, the two youthful gunmen blazed a bloody trail which had law enforcement officers baffled and had all of Ohio in a state of "jitters."

Next on the list of victims was Frank Kovach, middle-aged tourist camp operator at Flat Rock, Mich.

Then the killers, after being seen momentarily in southeastern Ohio, swept into the northern section and back to the Mansfield reformatory where both had served time for previous charges.

There, before dawn, they routed a reformatory official, his wife and 21-year-old daughter from their beds in their nightclothes, ransacked the residence to obtain a shotgun, rifle and revolver, and then shot the three to death in a rain-swept cornfield The nude bodies of reformatory Farm Superintendent John Niebel, 50, his wife Nolanda, 52, and 21-year-old Phyllis, her red hair done up in fin curlers, were found hours later.

The Niebel killings occurred Wednesday, and five law enforcement agencies joined in the hunt to halt the marauding men.

But before they could be captured they struck again last night, adding two more victims to their bloody toll.

James Smith, 25, Tiffin farmer, and his wife were enroute home after having some ice cream when a gray car crowded their auto to the side of the road. One of the occupants of the other car accused Smith of speeding, and asked to see his driver's license.

Smith produced it, but remonstrated when the man attempted to walk off with it. The man turned and fired, killing Smith, then climbed into the rear seat with Mrs. Smith—threatening to kill her if she screamed.

The killers car drove down the road, turned and came back, and the slayer left Mrs. Smith to get into his own car, driving away. The young widow ran to a nearby home, notified police, and police sped to the scene, setting up road blocks.

Find Abandoned Pontiac

Later, at a roadside park near Tiffin, Deputy Sheriff Grover Leopold found an abandoned Pontiac car. He called for help, and officers surrounded a nearby home, thinking the two fugitives had "holed up" there. They were not located, however, and a few minutes later a search of the park disclosed the body tentatively identified as Gschwind He had been shot twice, once in the back of the head and once in the heart.

The driveaway truck in which the two were finally captured was a Dodge owned by the Bolin Driveway Co., home town of which was not disclosed. It carried four Studebakers.

WAS "MODEL YOUTH," WEST'S MOTHER SAYS

By The Associated Press

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., July 23 — Mrs. Delia West, 56-year-old mother of a young desperado wounded critically in Ohio today after a 14-day reign of terror in which seven persons were slain, said today that "I wish it were all over."

She did not elaborate on that statement, but told a reporter in a heartbroken, tearful tone that if her son, 22-year-old John C. West, "did anything wrong he should pay."

West was shot between the eyes by a posse this morning and his companion, Robert Murl Daniels, 22, was captured as the two attempted to shoot their way through a road block six miles northeast of Van Wert, O.

Mrs. West said that her son had been a "model" youth, and that she could not understand how he could have been guilty of murder. She said she last saw him on June 22, when Daniels came to visit him at her Parkersburg home.

West left with Daniels later that day "after John kissed me goodbye as he always did," the gray-stricken mother related.

Mrs. West said she had not heard of her son again until last Monday, when a telephone call for her resulted in a Cincinnati paper that he was a suspect in the slaying of the police of Ohio and Indiana.

COURT RULES ON BALLOT BID

Only 3rd Party Candidates for Electors To Appear on State Ballot.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 23—Ohioans can accept or reject Henry A. Wallace's bid for the presidency in the November election, but not in his own name.

The state supreme court ruled yesterday that Wallace's new party candidates for presidential electors could have a place on the state's ballot if their nominating petitions had enough signatures. The electors are the persons who, if elected, traditionally vote for the candidates themselves in the electoral college. Ohio has 25.

The petition qualification was regarded as a technicality. Wallace supporters have filed petitions containing twice the number of signatures needed. However, neither the name of Wallace nor that of Glen L. Taylor, his vice presidential candidate may appear on the ballot under the court decision. Nor will there be anything to show that the electors represent him. They are to appear simply as independent candidates.

Secretary of State Edward J. Hummel, who had refused to grant the Wallace forces a place on the ballot made no comment on the decision. It came on their demand for a mandamus order to force Hummel to place them on the ballot.

He now must return the petitions to the county boards of elections for a check on the validity of the signatures.

The court's majority opinion said: "The fact that three members of the Wallace group (more than 46,000 petitioners) belong to the Communist party of true without showing either that they personally advocate the overthrow of our government by force, or do or have done any of the prohibited acts does not destroy or impair the effect of the affidavit."

Hummel's refusal was based on two counts:

1. Ohio election laws contain no provision for the nomination of independent candidates for president and vice president.

2. Wallace supporters did not file loyalty affidavits under a 1941 law barring from the ticket "parties or groups engaged in unAmerican activities."

Boyle at Wallace Convention

Corporation Lawyer Hits Trail for Henry Wallace

PHILADELPHIA

THE white-haired old corporation attorney, mad at both the Republicans and the Democrats, had come to hit the sawdust trail for Henry Wallace.

Elegant in a white sharkskin suit and blue tie, 75-year-old Arthur Dun of New York City looked a little out of place as he waited to appear before the last public hearing of the new party's platform committee.

There were more than a score there to testify for causes, old and new. Among them were a Negro nurse, a white-collar union official, a farmer, an Illinois patent attorney. A Jewish member of Palestine's extremist Stern group, an Irish seaman, Writer Muriel Draper and Rep. Vito Marcantonio, who wanted a plank put in the platform calling for Puerto Rican independence.

HAL BOYLE

They spoke at such length that Mrs. Elinor Gimbel, acting as platform secretary, warned:

"If we keep on like this we'll be here until tomorrow. From now on we'll have to limit each speaker to five minutes."

The first victim of the ruling was the elderly corporation lawyer.

"I have been voting for 54 years," he said. "I first voted back in 1884 when I was an undergraduate at Princeton. I always voted Republican until 1932. I guess I just didn't know any better."

The small audience of 75 in the ballroom of convention hall whooped lustily. Corporation lawyers are rare here.

"My mother was a member of the slave-holding aristocracy of Virginia," Dun continued. "But my hobby now is fighting the poll tax."

The spectators cheered again, and the corporation attorney bowed graciously.

HE THEN BEGAN READING the text of his statement. It called upon congress to enforce the 2nd section of the 14th amendment, "which requires that if a state abridges the right to vote in any way, the number of representatives in congress from such state must be reduced proportionately.

"Because of failure of congress to enforce this provision," Dun said, "the seven poll tax states in the south have 69 members in the house of representatives, whereas they are entitled to but 28."

Dun said he was sure that the southern states would rather remove the poll tax or other limitations on voting rather than have their membership in congress reduced.

"Furthermore—" he read on and when Mrs. Gimbel interrupted him:

"Time! Your time is up."

"BUT THIS IS THE most important thing in the country today," protested the old attorney. "If this plan is carried out, no civil rights legislation will be required."

"I'm sorry," murmured Mrs. Gimbel.

"I'm sorry, too," said Dun sadly. He folded his manuscript and walked back to his seat.

Later he said:

"I didn't ask to appear before the committee. They asked me. But I do wish they had let me finish. It was so important."

Then he brightened:

"You know after I gave up on Hoover I voted for Franklin D. Roosevelt. But now I am for Henry Wallace. I met him when he was secretary of agriculture.

"I gave him a book of mine and he gave me a book of his. He has a fine mind. He certainly does understand economics."

Then Dun leaned forward to listen to the next speaker. He was a little man in shirtsleeves, demanding that the Third party take a firm stand against liquor advertising.

TWO GERMAN WAR BRIDES IN REUNION

Berlin Girls Who Wed Americans Meet in Marion.

A reunion of two German war brides, who married former American soldiers, took place here Thursday, when Mr. and Mrs. Desmond M. Kindseth arrived from Berlin to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Johnson of south of Marion.

The couple are on their way to Mr. Kindseth's home in Kenyon, Minn. Mrs. Kindseth is the former Miss Hildegarde Suess-kow of Berlin. They were married in Berlin last May 29.

Mr. Kindseth formerly was a staff sergeant and combat buddy of Walter Johnson in the 310th Infantry Regiment, 78th Division, and for the last two and a half years has been employed as a civilian in the Office of Military Government for Germany in Berlin.

Mr. Johnson, a former staff sergeant and veteran of combat service in Europe, also was employed, following active military duty, in the Office of Military Government in Berlin. He returned from Berlin to the United States by air in April, 1947 and was accompanied by his fiancee, the former Miss Anne Marie Weber of Berlin. They were married in Marion, May 3, last year. Mrs. Johnson was the first German war bride in Marion county after the end of the war. Mr. Johnson now is a student at Ohio Wesleyan university at Delaware.

Both Mrs. Kindseth and Mrs. Johnson were close friends while they were residents of Berlin.

$999 MISTAKE

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 23—A 60-year-old engraver, on his morning walk to business, saw what he thought was a one-dollar bill on the sidewalk. When he picked it up he found it was a $1,000 bill. He turned it over to police. If no one claims it in 90 days, the engraver, Nicholas Panoff, will get the bill.

SCOUTS NAME NEW FIELD EXECUTIVE

Kenneth Nagley To Serve Marion, Morrow Counties.

Recently named to the position of field Scout executive in the Harding Area Council to serve Marion and Morrow counties is Kenneth Nagley, a native of Wilmington, O. The appointment was made and is being announced by Hugh P. Hay, Scout executive, and Dr. Robert T. Gray, president of the Harding Area Council.

Mr. Nagley has already assumed his duties and will make his future home in Marion. He takes over the position left vacant by the recent resignation of Owen Meddles.

Beginning Aug. 2, Mr. Nagley will attend the Boy Scout National Training school for Scout executives in Mendham, N. J., for 45 days to further prepare himself for his new position.

Mr. Nagley has been a Scouter for 12 years, having served at one time as assistant Scoutmaster of a troop at Wilmington. He served three years as a bombardier on a B-29 during World War II and was recently graduated from Wilmington college at Wilmington. He was married in June to Virginia McDowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. McDowell of Ashville, O.

SHIPYARD STEEL MEN RECEIVE PAY BOOST

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 23—A wage settlement affecting 28,000 CIO workers in the Bethlehem Steel company's nine east coast shipyards was announced today.

Under the present contract, the workers would have been free to strike at midnight tonight if no settlement had been reached.

Terms of the settlement will be announced after ratification by locals of the Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America (CIO) at the yards.

Latest demand of the union was for an increase of 13 cents an hour. The company said the average pay now is $1.65 an hour.

The settlement—announced at 3 a. m. after a negotiating session which started at 1 p. m. yesterday—was under a wage reopening clause in the current contract. The contract expires June 22, 1949.

OHIO FOOD RELIEF TO GO TO EUROPE

By The Associated Press

SIDNEY, O., July 23—Donated and packed by Shelby county residents, 126 tons of food will leave here Saturday enroute to Germany on a combined relief and good will mission.

Gov. Thomas J. Herbert is scheduled to be on hand as the food, loaded in eight trucks, heads toward New York for shipment. The consignment will consist of 6,000 boxes containing 32 pounds each.

The food-good will mission is the outcome of the assignment of Lewis Warbington, a Shelby county farmer, as an agricultural consultant to occupied Germany.

Into each package the person handling it has inserted an envelope with his name and address. Sponsors of the plan hope those receiving the food in four German cities—Berlin, Munich, Stuttgart, Nurnberg and Wiesbaden — will start writing to the folks back in Ohio. From the correspondence, they hope, will arise a feeling of better understanding between Germans and Americans.

First stop of the truck caravan Saturday morning will be in Columbus.

Only about 17 per cent of the working Jews now in Israel live on the land. The rest are in commerce and industry in the towns.

Acid Test of Party Government

THE UNITED STATES is governed under a two-party system—a fundamental fact that somehow evades the understanding of citizens who burn up their energy trying to substitute devices of their own manufacture.

The reason the Democrats have been making a botch of party government is because they cannot operate as a party; they are split too many ways. The reason the Republicans are getting favorable attention is because they show promise of reviving party government if they can elect the next chief executive and retain majorities in both houses of congress.

The net effect of Mr. Truman's political stunt of calling congress into special session next week, instead of letting the Republicans take responsibility in their stride next January if they win the presidency and continue to control congress, is to precipitate a test of party government.

Governor Dewey and the Republicans in congress have been challenged to prove that they can operate as a team. The challenge cannot be ignored. To be sure, it comes at an opportune time—almost six months before it would have come under ordinary procedure. Nevertheless, it must be accepted.

There is no good reason in politics and certainly no good reason in government why it can't be accepted. And if it is accepted, there is no reason why it can't be turned into a party asset not only for the election in November but for the responsibility the Republicans expect to have after the election. Governor Dewey, the party's adviserr who will be called on in any event and its members in congress can win more favor with voters by proving their ability to govern as a team than they can hope to win by three months of ordinary campaigning. They can turn Mr. Truman's challenge into a record of performance that will smother their disjointed opponents in congress and remove the last doubt of their right to take over the White House.

Berlin and the UN

SOME observers propose that the Berlin stalemate go to the United Nations, either on the West's appeal or at the direction of the secretary general. Such a step might provide a face-saving out for the principals, who have become deadlocked over an apparently insoluble issue.

Article 33 of the UN charter provides that parties to international disputes attempt to settle them between themselves. Article 37 adds: "should the parties . . to a dispute fail to settle it . they shall refer it to the security council."

Article 37 was successfully invoked in the case involving Russia and Iran. Russian troops held Iran's Azerbaijan province until the security council's spotlight was turned on the occupation. Then the Russians withdrew.

There are reasons why the western powers so far have refrained from going to the security council. In the first place, the procedure would be long and possibly unsuccessful, thereby further damaging UN prestige. Beyond that is the possibility the council wouldn't sustain the western powers' condition that ground traffic into Berlin must be restored as a condition for other negotiations on a German settlement.

Security council action would be no more than a small start toward a German treaty but it might provide the way out of a cul de sac that has brought the nations involved close to a war nobody wants.

Retiring the Umpire

SUSPENSION of American league Umpire McGowan pending an investigation of his conduct on the field is an item of uncommon news from the baseball front.

Except in matters of rule interpretation, umpires are courts of last resort. To balance this responsibility, the rules book directs them "to refrain from sarcasm to players, spectators or club officials at all times, always be courteous and as the league representative uphold the dignity of that office."

Major league umpires are chosen after being carefully observed for ability, integrity, sobriety and appearance. They must be able to take oral abuse from the stands and should, within reason, be able to disregard remarks made by players in the heat of the game. Each league maintains an umpire-in-chief to see that high standards are maintained. The protest against McGowan was lodged by Joe Kuhel, the Washington manager whom McGowan ejected from a game recently for the first time in his 19-year major league career.

This latest incident may revive the proposal for each manager to submit monthly reports on the abilities and temperaments of the umpires. Allowances for prejudice would have to be made but if an umpire constantly drew unfavorable reports from all or a majority of managers, his work could be subjected to closer scrutiny by the umpire-in-chief.

Statisticians estimate there is one mile of railroad for every 1,900 persons in the world.

If a member of a Navajo Indian family has a bad dream, the whole family often will move to hogans.

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

VIEWED in the perspective of a week, the assassination of the Italian Communist leader, Togliatti, was a mistake. The assassin should have waited until he had achieved power and then he could have done it by a purge. An assassination is wrong, a purge is not wrong, because it is authorized by those who control the state. It is legalized.

Yet, I cannot help ruminating on the possibility of having saved maybe 22,000,000 lives, at least, had someone succeeded in assassinating Adolf Hitler prior to September, 1939. After that date, the killing would have served no purpose because honor would have required the German generals to go forward in spite of the fact that many regarded the enterprise as stupid, as the "Von Hassell Diaries" prove. When national honor is at stake, men commit all sorts of stupidities. They even go to war.

SOKOLSKY

However, the very thought of assassinating Hitler must bring joy to many a heart, even in retrospect. But with Togliatti, it is different. He is a Communist and therefore he is, with many, sacrosanct. I wonder how many Italians are dead today because of Togliatti's revolutionary activities. What Togliatti did is not called assassination; it is called a people's revolution, if you understand the difference.

Political Murders

Stalin is not an assassin. He is the head of a state who orders political murders. He had most of the old Bolsheviks killed off, including every man who played a prime role in the revolution which brought him to power. No one knows precisely how the man-God Lenin died, but there are many reports and rumors which take on plausibility in view of Lenin's dislike for Stalin. Trotzky was, of course, murdered in Mexico by one of Stalin's assassins, as General Krivitzky was in the United States. Zinoviev, Kamenev, Bukharin, Radek, Tukhachevsky and thousands of others were killed by purges, after forced confessions. Stalin ordered the murders and he was applauded as a great statesman for it. He had purified Soviet Marxism by killing the Marxists. It was a statesmanlike achievement and was, of course, forgotten of, at any rate, disregarded when the Stalin-Hitler alliance was smashed and Stalin became an ally of Roosevelt and Churchill.

Drawing a Line

So Stalin waxes indignant when a student takes a pot-shot at Togliatti, and the Communists make a terrible noise about it.

Of course, murder is murder no matter who does it and murder is immoral and against the laws of God. It seems to me that no one can draw a line between one murderer and another, although some politicians can draw any kind of line if it keeps them in power. That is why so many of them could do business with Al Capone and "Lepa" Diamond and that also is why the Scotto-riglio murder in Marcantonio's district in New York has not been solved, and that is why some of the old Capone gang have been pardoned, a matter that will be further discussed from time to time. In a word, murder and politics somehow became associated in many places including our own country where such affiliations should not be tolerated.

Assassinations Expected

Presumably there will be numerous assassinations in Europe because there slavery has been reinstituted as a lawful institution. Not only have entire nations become enslaved but millions of human beings are individually enslaved to do Stalin's work—a social condition sanctified by Roosevelt and Truman at Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam. Among these slaves are many Italians who have disappeared in the steppes and tundras of Siberia. Their kin will undoubtedly murder their oppressors if they get a chance.

Personally, I cannot dislike a man who risks his life to kill the oppressor of his nation or the enslaver of his kin. We honor a large number of them who organized to do that job at Bunker Hill, at Breed's Hill, at Concord and Lexington.

We honor Kosciusko, Pulaski, Lafayette and Baron Steuben, who aided them. We honor George Washington, John and Samuel Adams, Patrick Henry, Benjamin Franklin and Thomas Jefferson, who aided in the plan. We salute them every time we pledge allegiance to our Flag and sing "The Star Spangled Banner."

Simplification

The president of the American Feed Manufacturers association has recommended that buying and selling of crops be done by the hundredweight instead of by the bushel.

Walter C. Berger reported the association's board of directors had approved the idea and that it would be presented to other interested groups.

"Everything the feed manufacturer sells and everything he buys, except farm grains, is on a hundredweight basis," Mr. Berger said. "Nowhere in the handling of grain is a bushel measure actually used, yet prices quoted are on a bushel basis even though payment is made by hundredweight.

"With few exceptions all farm grain sold is first weighed, then converted to bushels to arrive at net value. After purchase on a bushel basis, the feed industry must again reconvert the transaction to a hundredweight basis in order to arrive at a cost comparable with other ingredients in the ultimate selling price."

Truman-Barkley Statistics

By Raymond Moley

A NEW statistic has come into campaign oratory, and it certainly was overworked at the late Democratic convention. It is the dollar figure of national income. Barkley used it. Truman used it. Several lesser orators used it. At least we know that the same person did not write both Truman's and Barkley's speeches, for the figure was different in each. Barkley's was $210,000,000,000; Truman's $203,000,000,000. The national income figure, which, as economists know, is a highly shaky measure of prosperity, was used to carry out the inevitable contrast with the terrible year 1932.

MOLEY

The Democratic platform used the same device with a variation. Farm income, independent business and professional income and employees' earnings were compared with 1933.

Not once, as far as I could perceive, did a speaker suggest that a 1932 dollar and a 1948 dollar differed in value. In 1932 dollars the national income today would be slightly over $121,000,000,000.

Thus, Truman, Barkley and the Democratic platform point with pride at an inflated national income and view with alarm the Republicans who, they say, cause it to be so big.

The Master Ghost Writer

This device of using business statistics to prove things suggests the ghost writing exploits of the late Charles Michelson, who filled the mouths of Democratic orators for 20 years. All that Charley needed for a masterpiece was a typewriter, some paper, a new newspaper and an old file of newspapers. If he were writing in Hoover days, he made the comparison between the flourishing days of Wilson and the lean days of Hoover.

As 1932 was passed, Charley didn't even need the old file. All he needed was his memory of 1932 figures and the daily newspaper. In 1936 and 1940 he would stud his account with statistics of new businesses, lifted from the financial news. He would grab profit figures out of corporation reports. Altogether, he would "prove" with many a flourish that the Democrats created millions of profits for this or that company. Losses were never noted in those days. They were all noted in 1932.

How Charley did love business failures in 1932 and profits in 1936! Apparently the new speech writers are in the great Michelson tradition.

Outstanding Comparison

If two dates must be compared, it might be pointed out that not only should national income figures be corrected so that dollars mean the same thing, but that other comparisons are in order. How do taxes under the Democrats compare with taxes 16 years ago? In 1932 the federal revenue amounted to $1,783,000,000, while last year the federal government's taxing power brought in almost $48,000,000,000. What of the relative size of the national debt? From the comparatively Lilliputian $19,500,000,000 in 1932, it has soared to a Brobdingnagian $255,000,000,000.

Even this is poor argument. It merely cites two coincidental items, without proving cause and effect.

Since national income includes government spending, an administration can make it bigger by merely lifting its budget sights.

Finally, as this column has already noted, the responsibility for inflation over the past year almost exclusively rests upon the administration. At this moment, in fact, there is evidence that it is seeking to promote inflation still farther.

Filled-Up Feeling

Do You Obey All Ohio Laws? Maybe Not

By Dennis R. Smith

SO YOU'RE a law-abiding citizen!

You can look a policeman in the eye knowing that you have violated no statutes or ordinances. You think you've done nothing for which you might be hailed before the law.

Wait a minute!

Have you driven an automobile which was not equipped with a bell? Have you played ball on Decoration day within a mile of the speakers' stand? Have you ever towed a boat faster than four miles an hour on the Ohio canal? Have you planted a hedge without obtaining your neighbor's permission?

• • •

IF YOU HAVE DONE these and scores of other things you may land in jail for they are all prohibited by law.

There's a loophole in the one about the bell for it also says "or other signalling device." Thus a horn probably will satisfy the police but the lawmakers had a bell definitely in mind when they passed the law in the days of the primitive gas buggies.

Many of the old laws such as the one prohibiting racing jackasses past a cemetery were repealed not long ago but enough were left on the statute books to make most citizens" lawbreakers.

FOR EXAMPLE if you are keeper of a wharfboat and fail to hail a passing steamboat at the request of a passenger it may cost you from $10 to $100.

To this day it is a serious offense for the captain of a canal boat to tear down a rail fence along the right of way to provide fuel for the cabin stove.

You may not know that it is unlawful to ship salt in a barrel unless the barrel head is fastened with at least four large nails.

Participating in a duel is punishable by imprisonment of from 1 to 10 years. The same penalty is provided for any one who engages in a prize fight in Ohio. Attending a public boxing exhibition is punishable by three months imprisonment. Ever been to a boxing bout, Mr. Good Citizen?

IT IS UNLAWFUL to take a dog on a street car without permission, to discharge firearms within 100 yards of a cemetery or kill game within half a mile of a township park.

Any barber who cuts hair on Sunday may be fined not less than $15. A special law prohibits counterfeiting of tickets to a Chautauqua assembly.

Any married man who represents himself to be unmarried and who calls on "an unmarried female of good character" while posing as a bachelor may be sent to jail.

Cutting a horse's tail or pulling out the hairs may bring a six months workhouse sentence.

Profane swearing seems to be the least expensive offense on the books. A flat penalty of $1 is provided for each offense.

Manager of any theater who permits a patron to wear a hat obstructing the view of others may be fined $2 to $10.

Throwing stones at a railroad train or steamboat may result in imprisonment up to three years.

For many years Stark county farmers were especially interested in a law prohibiting the theft or destruction of ginseng since growing of this medicinal plant was a prosperous business here.

If a pupil at any school is "hazed," both the participants and the school principal may be prosecuted.

It is unlawful to display any foreign flag excepting upon proclamation by the mayor during the visit of a foreign guest; display of a red or black flag opposed to organized government is forbidden.

SCATTERED THROUGH the 12 volumes of the new edition of the Ohio General Code are scores of other laws that a policeman might dig up if he were so inclined.

It behooves you, therefore, good law-abiding citizens, to be polite to the policeman. Otherwise he may clap you in jail for improperly wearing an Elks pin, selling wool containing buck's fleece, taking illegal toll at a grist mill, operating a ferry without a license or failing to keep a list of passengers on a canal boat—all crimes and offenses under the 1948 Ohio laws.

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Saturday, July 23, 1938.

President Roosevelt and his party, aboard the cruiser, Houston, passed the half-way mark in their 1,300-mile voyage from Clipperton Island to the Galapagos group.

Pearl White, blond daredevil star of the old silent movie serials, was reported in an "alarming" condition at the American hospital in Paris. The 49-year-old actress was the star of the serial "Perils of Pauline."

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Brown of the Evans road.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Bull and family of West Church street, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bull and family of South High street and Fred Cathers of South Prospect street left for a 10 days' camping along the trout streams near Hoxeyville, Mich.

Jack Tozzer, 16, of Clover avenue and Jack Lewis, 15, of Brightwood drive, embarked in a homemade canvas boat on an approximately 160-mile canoe trip to Columbus and back. Jack Tozzer told his parents he wanted to see where the Whetstone river joins the Scioto at Columbus and also wanted to paddle past the state office building in a canoe, and Jack Lewis informed his parents he wanted to get in shape for the football season.

Miss Mary Gracely of East Church street returned from Palo Alto, Calif. where she had completed work for her master's degree in history at Stanford university.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Monday, July 23, 1928.

Judge George B. Scofield in common pleas court passed a death sentence on Everett Koon for the murder of Henry Foos, aged Marion county farmer, and directed that he should die in the electric chair of the Ohio penitentiary between midnight on the morning of Monday, Nov. 5.

Police Chief J. W. Thompson announced the launching of a campaign to enforce observance of "stop" signs at street intersections with the arrest of a Marion man after council designated a number of intersections as four-way stop crossings.

Council also took the first step in plans for resurfacing Main street from the railroad tracks to Columbia street and Center street from Main to Greenwood when it referred petitions of the Main and Center Street Improvement association to the city solicitor for drafting of legislation.

Directors of the Marion County Chautauqua named Rev. William E. Beachler of Dayton to preside as platform superintendent for the 1928 programs to start Thursday.

J. D. Vail, 64, Mt. Gilead banker, died at his home.

Miss Mary Piersol, daughter of Mrs. Ray Bishop of Marion, received word she had passed the state board examination for registered nurses. She had recently graduated from Mansfield General hospital.

Father and Son Dialogues

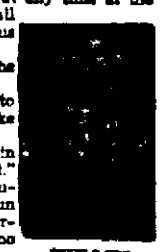
"Popper, baseball is our national game ain't it?"

"Yes, my son."

"It's the one from which millions of kids on the sand lots and in the school yards draw inspiration, get high ideals of clean sport?"

"Of course."

"Then why did a big league boss put this contract may be terminated at any time at the will of either party' in small type on a contract with his team manager?"



PHILLIPS

"Now, run along. I hear the Stookie boy calling you."

"But was it all right to make a contract tricky like that?"

"Let's not get involved in contractural matters my lad."

"And, popper, ain't Durocher, who was signed to run the famous Giants the other-day, the same Durocher who was so widely advertised as not living on exactly the highest levels of behavior?"

"My boy, baseball is baseball, and it has to have color and excitement. You should go out and get some air on a day like this."

"Wasn't he hired to take the place of Mel Ott, a manager looked up to all over the baseball world as a fine gentleman at all times, dad?"

"Ahem. Let's be reasonable. Baseball is a business that costs money. And a team's job is to win games and take pennants. Look, your pals are outside whistling for you."

• • •

"Popper, when a newspaperman wrote a story weeks ago that Branch Rickey wanted to get rid of Durocher wasn't it denied by Rickey and by two directors of the club in all the papers?"

"Well, they said he wasn't being fired, and that was technically true."

"But it wasn't a completely honest, one hundred per cent straight answer was it, dad?"

"Look' Willie Hoffman is waving for you to come out."

"Within a few hours of the time Rickey was in the Giants office agreeing to the Durocher switch wasn't he denying to newspapermen that there was anything in the story he was dropping Durocher?"

"He was conveying that impression, yes."

"But don't things like that amount to double-talk and evasion, popper? Ain't it conniving and being, er, adroit?"

"Now you must realize that"

"Is it what is called coming clean, playing the game above board and never being underhanded about things?"

"Not exactly."

"Well, if baseball is the national game and it is a model for the kids, and they are influenced in their morale by it, popper, should the big men in it ever be guilty of double-dealing with the press, misrepresenting the facts, or distorting the truth?"

"Now, Willie, this is final! Gwan out and play. What's the sunshine for anyhow?" Scram! "And stop taking your ideals from a duets!"

Ye Gotham Bugle & Banner

Ye ed was tickled to see Paul Kelly get that Donaldson award for the best actor of the year in "Command Decision." It's years since he saw a finer interpretation of a stage character.

And Nanette Fabray rated the award for her part in "High Button Shoes," too. Nanette gave an amazing spark and vitality to a musical that, while it was heaps of fun, was corny in lots of spots. Conniver, the filly that took the Brooklyn Handicap and has won nearly a hundred grand this summer, was sold by Alfred Vanderbilt cheap as "not much." What hurts is that he rejected a chance to buy her back this spring.

Bobby Clark in Mike Todd's new musical will play the first husband of the U.S.A., as the mate of its first woman president. Who'd you suggest for the part of the gal ruler? . . Mobster movies are flooding the land again. Don't movie picture moguls have kids of their own?

The John Jacob Astor showplace at Newport, was bought at auction by a druggist. He doesn't intend to use it as an apothecary shop, but will try to resell it at a profit. Just to prove once more that a modern drugstore man handles everything. Then, too, maybe he had a yen to do something big in which a prescription, a tub of mayonnaise and a big supply of lettuce would play no part.

An umpire's comment on Durocher's confession that he signed a contract that was not a contract: "No guy who considered that contract safe should ever dispute any decision of mine on the bases from now on."

Science Where Are You?

By TRUMAN TWILL

The electric blanket is here to stay. Flip the switch, set the dial and sleep in comfort. But what is science doing about the good old summertime?

Where is the hoot-nanny of the future that can be set at a temperature of 70 degrees and will hold it there, right on the nose, from midnight to 7 a.m.? What relief is in sight for poor devils who must catch their night's sleep during the heat of the day?

If it was such a slick trick to learn how to keep warm in bed, wouldn't it be a lot slicker to figure out how to keep cool in bed?

Science has been concentrating on one side of the problem and neglecting the other side. People have known for centuries how to keep warm. There's nothing novel about that. But keeping cool is still the great unsolved mystery.

Too much heat has been as great a curse in the hot climates as too little heat has been in the cold climates—probably a greater one. Men have thought up all kinds of wrinkles for surviving where it's cold, whereas they've consistently unraveled and gone to seed where it's too hot.

Air conditioning is only half a solution to the heat problem. It never will be practical to air-condition all the dwelling places in the United States for summer comfort. Whatever comfort is going to be achieved will have to come about through something developed for individual use.

What we have in mind, to get right down to the ice cubes of the situation, is a water-tight sleeping bag with cold water circulating between its inner and outer layers. The temperature would be regulated by a thermostatic control.

Instead of plugging in an electric blanket on retiring, the sleeper would climb into the water-cooled sack, first attaching it to the faucet in the bathroom. Eventually, of course all sleeping rooms would be provided with running water for this purpose.

There would be no waste of water involved in the occupation, because all the water which had become heated during the night would drain back into the bathtub and be available for the morning dip. The surplus could be run off into the lower beds, or used to operate the lawn sprinkler.

Everybody would wake up feeling bright and frisky and in no time at all the output per man-hour during the summer months would be as high as it is during the weeks just before Christmas. There would be fewer frayed nerves and lost tempers.

Science, where are you? Why should a non-scientist have to answer the knock of opportunity? Congratulations on the electric blanket. But now let's have the water-cooled sack!—

PROSECUTOR TO ACT ON HOSPITAL VOTE

Moves To Clear Up Question of Special Election.

County Prosecutor James E. Reed was to act today in an effort to give county commissioners the choice of either calling for a special election on the hospital bond issue or placing the issue on the November ballot.

It has been recommended by the Marion Civic Planning association that a special election be held but as yet the commissioners are without the authority to call for one

Both federal and state approval must be secured before the commissioners may act, according to state statute

While federal approval has been secured without difficulty, state tax commission approval of the special election has not been secured, the county prosecutor said

Reason given was that State Tax Commissioner Ferd Becker is on vacation and the department had no authority to act without his approval to certify a special election here

The county prosecutor said he intended to contact the state tax department today to determine if there was some way to gain state approval of a special election without further delay He said he had not been informed as to how long the tax commissioner would be away

Meanwhile a meeting is scheduled for tonight at Central Junior high school to organize a group to spearhead the campaign for the hospital bond issue whether it be voted on at a special election or in November Any interested person, either city or county resident is urged to attend The meeting is scheduled for 8 p m.

CLAY

his troops and civilian personnel are carrying out their mission in Berlin and in Germany as a whole"

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross told newsmen he thought Clay was simply coming to the White House "for a farewell call before returning to Berlin"

Clay gave Mr Truman and his top advisers a report on the German situation yesterday

During the morning, the American occupation commander in Germany appeared at a closed session of some members of the house foreign affairs committee to review steps in the Berlin crisis

Chairman Eaton (R-NJ) told a reporter before the committee met that among things to be talked over with the general was a report the Russians have offered to lift their blockade if the U S. would open its zone freely to the Soviets.

Before Clay takes off, the occupation commander will have a chance to give the American people some of the views he reported yesterday to President Truman, Secretary of State Marshall, and other members of the governments national security council. The Army department announced that Clay would hold a news conference at 1 p m.

U. S. Designers Win Fight Against Odd French Fashions

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor

NEW YORK, July 22—American women have won their battle against exaggerated French styles, it became increasingly apparent today half-way through New York's hectic week of fall fashion openings.

The clothes that will be worn this fall are tailored to the American taste simple, casual and wearable for daytime consulting and often sensational for after dark.

Typical of the new mood is the collection of Jo Copeland, a designer who never has gone to Paris for inspiration, believing that she knows better than the French the needs of her countrywomen. She uses opulent fabrics, unusual trimmings, a slim, sleek line and a flattering backswoosh in a series of cocktail suits and dresses.

Notable is a black faille suit with smal velvet collar, a white alencon lace blouse and a riding habit skirt She uses navy broadcloth in a new chiffon weight, which drapes like satin, in a distinguished theater or cocktail suit with jacket edged in black faille bands and worn with a blouse of American beauty satin

Skirts are slim or with discreet back fullness, skirt lengths for daytime wear are 11 inches from the floor, for after 5 o clock use they drop to ankle length. Her evening styles are lush and magnificent, a typical example being a sumptuous creation of pink slipper satin with full, graceful skirt, draped bodice and embroidered black velvet trim

Anthony Blotta reintroduces Eugene to the fashion world, but with subtlety and grace lacking in the little-mourned craze of 1930. He shows huge stoles of matching fabric with suits highlights a fabulous group of dinner and theater suits in rich and beautiful fabrics. Braid and embroidery trimmings, fringe, jet encrustations, subtle colors and comfy fabrics keynote his collection.

OHIO REVEALS U.S. TAX BILL

Ohioans Pay Average of $380 to Federal Government in Past Year.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON July 23—Ohio kicked in a whopping $2 663 377 091 to the federal government in the fiscal year ended June 30

This is a billion dollars more than the total federal outlay three decades ago

In Ohio based on 1940 census figures it means a per capita payment of about $380

The total represents individual income taxes amounting to $1 238,706 579 corporation taxes of $734,382 788 and excess profits taxes of $32 101,370

Figures Not Indicative

The remainder covers employment taxes and other federal excises collected by the internal revenue bureau

The treasury department which made the figures public said they are not entirely indicative of the federal tax burden of Ohio or any other individual state, since the taxes may eventually be borne by persons in other states

Total internal revenue collections throughout the country amounted to $41,851,092 457 against $39 106,385 741 last year

Ohio collections the previous year were $2 443 637 089

Corporation taxes paid in Ohio were 57 per cent higher than the $465,368 408 paid the previous year Individual income tax payments were up 13 per cent over the 1947 fiscal year

Profits Tax Down

Excess profits tax declined from $262 853 461 in the 1947 fiscal year to the $33 101 370 paid in the year ending June 30

Total individual income tax payments throughout the country totaled $20 904 196 708 against $19 343 297 275 the year before

Corporation taxes nationally were $8 956 375 164 against $6,-055,095 928 the year previous

The receipts were broken down by internal revenue districts and showed the following from Ohio First district $888 383 729, 10th district $329 596 195 11th district, $228 234 962, 18th district, $1,416,162 003

3 SUPERFORTS HUNT DISTANT AIR BASES

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON July 23—Three American Superfortresses are off on a round-the-world scouting flight to see whether big bombers could use fields and facilities in distant parts of the world should trouble come some day

The second stop of the trio of B-29 s was scheduled for today at Lagens air base in the Azores, which the United States uses under an agreement with Portugal

The bombers, taking off from their home base at Davis-Monthan field, Tucson Ariz stopped at MacDill Fla yesterday afternoon for fuel then headed eastward out across the Atlantic

From the Azores the three bombers are scheduled to fly to Wheelus field near Tripoli Libya, a World War II base recently reopened as a stop on transport routes The schedule calls for the arrival at Wheelus Saturday morning

WALLACE

with shouts and party campaign songs

Stepping from the train Wallace declared chances of his party in the coming election are fine "The new party will make things roll after this convention Mark my word on that

Banners Tell Story

The crowd carried banners and placards hailing Wallace and Senator Glen H Taylor of Idaho his vice presidential running mate

The placards displayed such slogans as

"Had enough milk at 25 cents a quart?"

"People before profits"

"Repeal the draft now

"Vets want peace

Wallace came here from New York He was accompanied by Mrs Wallace and a group of aides

The third party nominee waived aside questions from reporters about Communism and party principles He said such questions would be answered at a news conference later in the day

Figures Chances Good

He did say that chances of his party are very much better than any of the pollsters indicate

Wallace went from the station to the Bellevue-Stratford hotel arm in arm with Senator Taylor

Wallace's arrival marks the formal launching of the first serious attempt since 1924 to cut across Democratic and Republican lines with a third candidate for the presidency

In that long ago era the ticket of Robert M LaFollette Sr and Burton K Wheeler got about 4,500 000 votes

Estimates now range between that and 9 000 000 for the vote total Likely to be amassed by Wallace and his running mate Senator Glen Taylor, erstwhile Idaho Democrat

Will Affect Race

But if the new party convention opening officially here tonight itself gives Wallace almost no chance of election there was none in the Republican or Democratic camps to say that his race will not effect vitally the November outcome

The Republicans hope that Wallace and Taylor to be formally nominated tomorrow afternoon will take from the Democrats enough votes in the big population states to cinch the election of their nominee Gov Thomas E. Dewey of New York

The Democrats whistle valiantly that Wallace a former New Dealer will lure as many votes away from the GOP as he does from their party

Meanwhile Albert J Fitzgerald chosen as permanent chairman of the convention said that labor representatives from every state are represented on a national labor committee supporting Wallace and Taylor,

FICHTER REJECTED FOR STATE BOARD

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O July 23 — Gov Thomas J Herbert had to cast around today for some one other than State Grange Master Joseph Fichter as a member of the Ohio conservation commission

The Ohio senate's rules committee refused to recommend confirmation of the Oxford man last night, and the recess appointment made two months ago was blocked Fichter was to have succeeded David C Bradfute who resigned to become postmaster at Xenia

Sen Fred Reimers (R Hamilton) vice chairman of the rules committee, said opposition to Fichter came in part as a result of recent speeches by the Grange master and statements to legislative committees during the regular session Other committee members had no comment on the action

John Robert Jones Governor Herbert's secretary said Fichter had the endorsement of farm organizations principally the Grange and the Ohio Farm Bureau federation and otherwise met the requirements of the appointment He is a Democrat

The senate confirmed a score of other recess appointments including that of Earl L Reeb of Defiance as state highway director Reeb succeeded Murray D Shaffer who resigned earlier this year to take a sales job for a road equipment firm

Other confirmations all by unanimous votes included Roy D Moore of Canton member of the Ohio development and publicity commission, term ending April 7 1954

BATTLESHIP NEVADA NEAR LAST "BATTLE"

By The Associated Press

PEARL HARBOR July 23 — Burial on the high seas with 16-inch guns pounding out a death knell will climax next week the saga of the USS Nevada—a fighting battleship

The dreadnaught that weathered two atomic bomb blasts at Bikini is cast again in a guinea pig role Behind a security curtain, ordnance experts are scheduled to start testing a new non-atomic explosive on her tough hide tomorrow

Next Thursday Navy planes will rip her with bat bombs—gliders packed with explosives and guided by radar The battleship Iowa and the cruisers Astoria, Pasadena and Springfield will close in Friday to finish her off with heavy guns.

The 32-year-old veteran awaits her end in the garish shroud of orange paint that marked her as the bull's-eye ship at Bikini. She is deadly radioactive Her stack is crushed her radar gear and one yardarm are missing

The worn-out ship her stern already low in the water may give up the ghost ahead of schedule like the battleship New York on July 7 But the Nevada already has proved she can take more than any one ship's share of punishment

HEADS DRAFT IN OHIO. Three jobs are now held by Adj Gen Chester W Goble of Columbus the man who directed Ohio's manpower into the armed forces during World War II He has been named by Governor Thomas Herbert to repeat the job under the nation's new peacetime draft setup He also is the state's adjutant general and bonus director (International photo)

MARIONITE RECALLS PERSHING AS SOLDIER

Retired Sergeant Knew General in Philippines.

The death of General John J Pershing brought reminiscences of his war career to one Marion veteran, T E Kinnear of 451 East Center street, master sergeant, U S Army, retired

The general was a captain with Troop C, 15th U S Calvalry stationed at Camp Vickers, Philippine Islands, when the Marion veteran first knew him shortly after the turn of the century Pershing was commander of the camp and Kinnear was with the 27th Infantry at Mindanao P I with part time service at Camp Vickers

Later around 1905 and 1906 Kinnear was stationed at Fort William McKinley P I when the general returned to the Philippines as a brigadier general He also served under his command when Pershing was commander of the Southern department of the Islands was with him on the punitive expedition in Mexico in 1916 and served under him in World War I The Marion veteran again met General Pershing when he visited here with President and Mrs Harding during the centennial celebration and also called on him in his office in Washington D C

"A strict tactician in the business of war but always giving the enlisted man the break" is Kinnear's tribute to General Pershing

Kinnear retired Sept 3 1919 as a master sergeant with 30 years of credited service

Radar Used in Traffic Test in Union County

The first "round-the-clock" radar speed survey of vehicular traffic on the highways of the state, as a part of Governor Herbert's safety program, was conducted at a point three miles southwest of New California on route 33 in Union county at the Van McAdow farm, beginning at 5 a. m. Wednesday, July 21 and ending at 5 a. m., Thursday July 22, Division Engineer Robert F Warner said today

The survey was administered through the office of Harry E Neal, chief engineer of the division of traffic and safety in the state highway department

Purpose of the project is to ascertain and analyze vehicular speed at all times of the day and night, with the ultimate object after a number of similar surveys are made and data assembled, recommending ways and means of improving highway safety, Mr Werner said

Plan Other Tests

Additional sites for this study on other state highways that best show a "normal" pattern are being considered

One man trained for this job, works for a four hour stretch followed by another who operates the device for the next four hours etc, covering six four-hour tricks

Speed of every vehicle entering the field is spotted by the radar beam, checked on the meter to maximum speed, whereupon the operator notes upon his record the greatest speed of the vehicle within the zone The meter continuously shows the speed of a vehicle within the operating zone and shows both acceleration and deceleration

When two or more vehicles are in the zone of operation the meter is arranged to give preference to the faster-moving vehicle

As soon as the vehicle has passed the needle falls back to zero again awaiting arrival of the next car

Vehicle speeds read directly from the speed meter may be classified according to passenger cars buses trucks etc, on a specially prepared data sheet

To Analyze Reports

The speed observations are to be analyzed and interpreted in Mr Neal's office following which a report will be made to State Highway Director Earl Reed

The equipment used in this survey is portable and consists of three parts which, for convenience in carrying, are packed in a leather case

The transmitter-receiver radar equipment is encased in a metal unit and reflects the velocity of the approach of any moving object which in turn is recorded on the indicator

Serving as operators on this project are V J Hopkins, traffic supervisor, Willard Armstrong assistant traffic engineer, and Tom Metcalf, traffic analyst, all of the state highway department

Since the radar equipment is compact and inconspicuously placed, drivers under observation are unaware of its presence thus yielding "normal" driver operational characteristics

Results of the survey will be published later, Mr Werner said

TO SING SUNDAY

A program of romantic ballads will be sung by Marion musicians, Miss Patricia Dearing, contralto, and Robert Somerlot, tenor, on the Central district, Ohio Federation of Music Clubs, broadcast over radio station WRFD, Worthington, Sunday at 1 30 p m Miss Dearing's numbers will be "I Love Thee" Grieg and "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" Kern Selections by Mr. Somerlot will include "Oh, Promise Me" DeKoven, and "Always" A duet "Because," D Hardelot, will complete the program.

RETURN FROM CONVENTION

Mrs Lula A Trefz and Miss Ruth Dell Auman of Caledonia have returned from Columbus where they attended the forty-sixth annual convention of the Ohio Rural Letter Carriers association held at the Deshler-Wallick hotel, July 19-21 Mrs Trefz who is carrier for routes 1 from the Caledonia and Martel postoffices was a delegate from the Crawford County Rural Letter Carriers association

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

"Why, Mary" Olga said with as much reproof in her voice as she ever gives to her temperamental step-daughter-in-law, whom she so sincerely loves

"What do you mean, Mary?" Olina asked next.

"I'm echoing that question" I said. "Do you mean I ought not to go ahead and order the dinner for which Dicky says my father asked?"

"Of course not," she said scornfully "That dinner order is strictly on the up-and-up It also is most reminiscent Broiled lobster all the other seafood dishes and strawberry shortcake for dessert' It's a wonder Grandpa Spencer didn't order pancakes and syrup on the side, for fear the guests might feel faint in their insides"

We laughed uproariously at her nonsense, and then Olina put the question I was reluctant to voice

"Then what is it you don't believe?" Olina asked.

But Mary was suddenly silent, looking speculatively at me

"I've changed my mind" she said. "I believe everything Uncle Dicky told Auntie Madge Perhaps he believes it himself Who am I to question the edicts of the great ace of the government diplomatic service" But with all respect to dear Grandpa Spencer either he's lying or he's gone completely looney I shall find out which when the dinner party materializes tonight In the meantime, you'd better get busy and order that dinner, Auntie Madge And make those lobsters the biggest they can find especially for Grandpa Spencer's two guests. You'll need 'em"

I wondered if her mind was traveling along the same road as mine, decided that it was, but that it was no use to put a single question to her, even if I had wished, which I didn't I felt that I would rather drift along in delicious fantastic speculation until dinner-time should bring the answer

"I'm going to order the dinner," I said "But first" I rose from my chair and slowly circled around Olina who had been standing during the colloquy "I am going to feast my eyes on a vision of loveliness"

"Isn't she something?" Mary asked, as Olina flushed, and Olga beamed.

"She is all of that," I said sincerely, for Olina in the court wedding gown with its veil sweeping to the edge of her train was a rare picture of feminine loveliness

"When that bouquet of butterfly white orchids, centered with the larger ones which you have planned, is in her arms, the picture will be complete," I told Olga

"Not quite" she said "I shall want you to jot down an additional order for Mr Kennedy I want enough extra butterflies and lilies of the valley to outline the cap of this veil"

I threw up my hand and saluted her

"Upperring your taste and your judgment, I told her And now I must get to the telephone"

"I'll try to have my gown on by the time you get through" Mary said Mother insists that I be next"

"I shall be anxious to see you" I told her as I went over to the telephone and called the head of the dining room

"Unexpectedly" I told her "I shall have nine people for dinner to be served in my living room I shall want shrimp cocktail first then steamed clams with clam broth on the side The main course will be broiled lobsters, with your own special sauce, full size two of them extra large Only French fried potatoes and your delicious cold slaw with that course Then for dessert please don't laugh I want a fresh strawberry shortcake, biscuit dough not cake with whipped cream Plenty of ginger ale and coffee no other drinks Can you imagine that dinner for nine at eight o'clock?"

She laughed, the comfortable gurgle of one well used to the vagaries of the Graham family

"Yes I can manage it," she said "if you are sure your guests can"

Near Tragedy Strikes in Eighth Race When Horse Throws Driver

Bud Mite Breaks on Back Stretch Tumbling Shillings from Sulky

By GEORGE SCOTT

Near tragedy struck on the second back stretch in the eighth race at the fairgrounds last night when Slim Shilling, one of the leading drivers at the Marion meet, was thrown from Bud Mite a speedy three-year-old pacer.

Both driver and horse were lucky to escape injury in the spill which looked more serious than it was. At the start of the 18 class pace of a mile, the feature of the evening, one of Bud Mite's nubbies broke. Shilling said afterwards that he was going to quit at the half-mile point but the brown colt was doing so well he decided to continue the race.

Shilling had almost reached the three quarter mark when Bud Mite seemed to break suddenly throwing him out of the sulky. Slim jumped out of the way of oncoming horses avoiding a serious collision. The leading driver at both Hilliard and Lebanon, Shilling has done well at the Marion meet collecting five firsts, 15 seconds, and three thirds.

2,200 Attend

A crowd of 2,300 harness racing fans attended the eighth race program which didn't look like it would be completed when it started under skies blackened by rain clouds. Most of them stayed to see Raider Direct, a chestnut gelding, win the contest which Bud Mite did not finish.

Driver Harry Miller kept Raider Direct in the number three slot until the turn into the home stretch. The seven-year-old pacer passed the field with surprising ease and won in the night's best time, 2.14, on a track that was almost mud.

Rollo Graham of Richwood drove Single See to victory in the second race, his first of the meet. Graham, both owner and driver of the four-year-old Single See, went to the top at the start and lead all the way.

Jimmy Wingfield came within a photo-finish of racking up another victory to bolster his two-win lead in the drivers' contest for winners. He was going ahead at the wire but waited too long before overtaking Pat H., winner of the 28 class trot for a mile. The Haines brothers of Richwood, owners of Pat H., both drive but this time Dewey was in the sulky as the brothers won their second of the meet.

Big Night for Richwood

It was a big night for Richwood-owned horses. Owner and driver Clair Baker drove J.E.W. to his third straight triumph in the Marion meet. The brown gelding started in front in the fourth race, a 19 class trot for a mile, but had to come from behind to take the lion's share of the $400 purse.

One of the most exciting contests of the night was the fifth race two-year-old pace when Widower Cyrus put on a surprisingly fast drive in the last back stretch to win.

The daily double paid $46.5 winners Pat H in the first and Single See in the second.

MILWAUKEE GAINS ON INDIANAPOLIS

By The Associated Press

Milwaukee held a slightly larger lead over second place Indianapolis in the American Association today. Columbus' third-place Redbirds kept pace with a threehit victory by pitcher Ray Yochim.

Milwaukee picked up three percentage points and moved a half game in front of the idle Indianapolis club by winning 5-2 over Louisville in a game ended by rain after five innings last night. It took more than three hours to play the abbreviated contest because of intermittent showers.

Columbus, 7½ games behind the Brewers, won 4-1 over Kansas City. Hank Bauer, Kansas City outfielder, banged a 425-foot home run inside the park but the other two hits off Yochim were harmless singles.

St. Paul continued a half game behind Columbus by bunching seven hits for four runs in two innings and beating Minneapolis 4-3 in the only other league game last night.

4 Tee Off in Publinx Semi-Finals Today

By The Associated Press

ATLANTA, July 23 — Two westerners took on a southerner and an easterner in the 36-hole semi-finals of the National Public Links golf tournament today over North Fulton Park's 6,702-yard par 71 course.

Pairing of survivors after four days and 108 holes of intensive golf during the 23rd national tournament are:

Oliver Kay, Toledo, Ohio, with Ben Hughes, Portland, Ore., and Mike Perentz, Long Beach, Calif., with Charley Barnes, Atlanta.

The four public links aces are the survivors of a giant field of 200 golfers who began the tournament.

Kay won his way into the semi-finals with a victory over Ralph Schneider of Shaker Heights, O., in yesterday's sixth round.

BILL BOLDUC SENT TO JANESVILLE, WIS.

Marion Left Fielder To Join Zeke Bekeza's Club.

Left fielder Bill Bolduc was released yesterday to join the Janesville Cubs of the Wisconsin State league, Manager Frank Kristie announced.

Bolduc, selected shortly after the season opened on the Ohio-Indiana league All Star team by vote of the league sports writers recently, was leading the league in two-base hits with 32 to his credit. He was batting .321 and had passed the century mark in base hits by six.

Kristie expressed dissatisfaction with Bolduc's fielding. A replacement has not as yet been named, catcher Stan King is substituting in the garden temporarily.

Bolduc's departure increases to five the number of players who have been with the ball club from opening day. Pitchers Nick Arvojvodic and Ray Peet, shortstop Pete Schnepf, catcher Tom Gatts and outfielder Lee Bollander have weathered the cuts.

Bolduc will join former Marion players Zeke Bekeza, Don Schmitt, Mitchell Gegex, and Jim Auterson at Janesville, formerly managed by Kristie until the managerial trade that sent Bekeza to Janesville July 1. Earlier in the year the Marion Cubs had sent pitchers Si Pavkov and Fred Wensing and first baseman Jim Kyker to the Wisconsin club, but all were subsequently released.

Bolduc is a native of Cambridge, Mass. He is in his second year of baseball, having played with the Elizabethtown, Tenn., Cubs in 1946 when Bekeza was piloting that club. He reported to Marion for spring training in 1947 but left for home before the season began because of illness of his mother.

SUCCEEDS BERNARD BERENS

By The Associated Press

LANCASTER, O., July 23 — Charles E. McPherson of Athens yesterday became state Boys Industrial School athletic coach. Superintendent Harold L. Hays announced. McPherson, former student director of intramural sports at Ohio university, succeeds Bernard Berens, who resigned to become the industrial school's dean of boys. Berens was formerly coach at Marion St. Mary high school.

Horses Owned by Marionites Doing Well at Local Meeting

By GEORGE SCOTT

If you want to make money, get on "it pays to be an idiot" or enter "Like Wap because contests instead of buying a trotter or pacer. But in spite of the fact that few harness horse owners come out in the black, most Marion owners are doing well at the fairgrounds track so far this season.

Almost a fourth of the winners have been Marion or near-Marion owned. For the second straight year Charles D. England of Marion leads the local owners with $2,010 in winnings. The green and white colors of England's Parsley Acres Farm have crossed the finish line with four firsts, three seconds, five thirds and two fourths.

Winners get the lion's share of purses, 50 per cent. Seconds receive 25 per cent, thirds 15 per cent, and fourths 10 per cent. This means that in a race with a $400 purse first takes $200, second $100, third $60 and fourth $40.

Dr. McNamara Is 2nd

Dean of Marion owners Dr. J. G. McNamara is second with $840. His stable of four horses has collected three wins, one second and third, and two fourths. Dr. McNamara of 335 South Vine street is president of the Matinee club sponsor of the 18-day meet which closed this Saturday night.

Owners Anderson and Hostetler of Kenton have reaped their share on the much-raced Jimmy-At-Law. And the brown seven-year-old has performed admirably for the co-owners placing in the money six times, four of which were the higher paying feature contests, to run his winnings up to $775 in the meet so far.

Close behind are Delbert and Dewey Haines, one of three brother combinations from Richwood. They have copped $750 in prize money on one first, two seconds and thirds, and six fourths. The Cheney brothers and the Wall brothers of Richwood have won $400 and $60, respectively.

$342 Without a Win

Feminine owner Daisy Haines, also of Richwood, with her stable of two horses has netted $562.50. Strangely enough she hasn't had a winner as yet. But her four seconds and a fourth have been largely in feature contests.

Charlie Sims of Waldo who does the driving for Dr. McNamara has collected $520 on his own five horses. D. C. Cessna of Kenton also has won $520.

Local auctioneer Lewis M. Wickersham of near Marion with his Idle Hour stable of seven horses has had two firsts, a third, and a fourth for a $500 total in the meet so far.

With winnings of $400 or better are M. J. Broderick of Delaware, Harold V. Smith of Marysville, and C. R. Baker of Richwood.

Over the $300 mark are C. R. Jennon of 783 Windsor street, Warren J. Wise of 384 East Church street, Walter McCluskey of Prospect, and George Battles of Richwood.

Other Marion and near-Marion owners who have had horses in the money are C. M. Rutherford of Marion, R. W. Lenox of Richwood, Kenneth Spain of Marysville, Jerry McAuliffe of Marysville, Dr. C. W. Smith of Marion, B. E. Earl and G. A. Wright of Marion, Lester Ledman of Kenton, Ed Wyatt of Waldo, Thema R. Cosler of Cardington, Jim Bump of Marysville, C. G. Smith of Marion, Dan Earl of near Marion, and George H. Auker secretary of the Marion Matinee club.

Mac Anderson of Kenton, Bessie Parks of Ridgeland and Floyd V. Jenkins of Galion are also Marion money horses. These findings do not include last night's racing.

GOPHER BALL IS A NEMESIS TO FELLER

Yanks Beat Tribe, 6-5, on Two Home Runs.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 23 — The gopher ball, or home run pitch, had the Cleveland Indians teetering atop the American league standings today with three contenders closing in on the Tribe.

Bob Feller, who has slipped down the ladder of effectiveness as rapidly as his penchant for pitching home run balls has increased, yielded two circuit clouts last night, and they accounted for all of New York's runs in a 6-5 victory over the Indians.

The blows, a two-run homer by Tommy Henrich in the third and a grand slam clout by Joe DiMaggio in the fifth, were the 18th and 17th homers yielded by the fiery firebailer this season.

Lifted for a pinch-hitter in the sixth, Feller absorbed his 12th loss against nine victories and the Indians dropped their second game in three starts against the Yankees during the current series.

The Indians moved in front in the second inning with one run when Manager Lou Boudreau reached first on an error, moved to second on Ken Keltner's single and scored on another one-bagger by Eddie Robinson. Larry Doby walked and tallied on Boudreau's double in the second.

Henrich promptly deadlocked the count with a four-bagger after Snuffy Stirnweiss singled, and DiMaggio blasted the Tribe's victory hopes with his homer after the bases had been loaded on a single and two walks. Relief hurler Byrne pitched brilliantly to snuff out later Cleveland threats and preserve Vic Raschi's 11th win.

Dale Mitchell provided one bright spot in the Indians' loss by slamming a home run and single to extend his hitting streak to 20 straight games. Bill Johnson of the Yanks was held hitless as his consecutive batting streak was snapped at 18 contests.

NEWARK MEETS CUBS IN 2 GAMES TONIGHT

Last Night's Game Called Because of Wet Grounds.

Newark and Marion will play a doubleheader at Lawson park starting at 8:30 tonight.

Last night's scheduled game was postponed just before it was to begin because of wet grounds.

Zanesville's Dodgers ran up the only victory of the night, a 7-0 shutout of Lima behind the seven-hit pitching of Manager Ray Hathaway who became the winningest pitcher in the Ohio-Indiana league with the victory. It was his 14th against five losses. Only one Lima runner passed second base during the entire encounter.

A Muncie-Springfield game was postponed because of rain and the Richmond-Portsmouth game was rained out.

Newark opened a game out in the first inning in an attempt to overcome the 5-3 edge that Marion had a double victory on the initial night's action from first to third place.

The Yankee Bombers have only beaten Marion's Cubs twice with pats, but have taken the trick six times at Newark.

Ernie Lawrence, who is slated to work against Nick Arvojvodic in the first game, was the only Yankee hurler who beat the Cubs on their home field. Arvojvodic, the club's leading winner had yet to beat the Yanks. He has lost twice at Newark.

Arvojvodic will be working for his 13th victory. He has lost eight.

Big Jim Edgar is slated to pitch the second game. Edgar will be looking for his eighth win. He has lost seven.

Estes, Williams Are Tag Team Victors

Buck Estes and Eddie Williams teamed up to tag Harold "Irish" McGee and Jack Terry in last night's tag team wrestle at the Armory. Estes and Williams combined their clean style of tussle with the referee's decision, as he disqualified Terry and McGee for illegal holds in the third and deciding fall. Terry and Estes, however, took the first fall in 17 minutes when McGee caught Williams in his corner and pinned him with a hammer-lock after he had been given a terrific mauling. Then Estes and Williams did the same for Terry in his corner in seven minutes to take the second fall.

In the 30-minute events, Williams made McGee give in 14 minutes with a grapevine hold and Terry won the fall over Estes with a back-breaker in 13 minutes. Butch Patterson and Bill Alexander wrestled to a 10-minute draw in the curtain-raiser.

R. T. Lewis Leads Group in Senior Golf Tourney

Allen R. Rankin, tournament runner of the district senior golf tournament, yesterday finished the first half of the fifty annual event with a two-stroke edge over a field of 87 at the Columbus Country club but a Marionite had the distinction of leading one of the divisions.

That was R. T. Lewis, whose 87 set the pace for class E (men over 70). The other leaders in the tournament was also a Marionite, Joseph Stamper, who posted a 94.

Fred Browne of Marion posted a 92 in the class B division for men from 55 to 60 and Fred Sage turned in a 95 in the class D division for men 65 to 70.

Going one over par for each nine with a 36 and a 38, Rankin, the Scioto Country club's representative appeared ready to continue his reign over the links from 50-year olds and over when the final 18 holes in the fifty-plus event are completed today.

Closest to Rankin were H. M. Gardner of Columbus and George Nelson of the host club at 96.

More than 400,000,000 pairs of shoes are produced each year in the United States.

Yanks, Indians Appear Sure To Set All-Time Attendance Mark for Inter-Club Series

By The Associated Press

Four clubs are battling for the American league pennant but two teams—Cleveland and New York—are making all the money.

The Indians and Yankees are headed for a new all-time attendance mark of 850,000 and over $1,000,000 for their 22-game inter-club series. Baseball never has seen anything like it because it never had two parks like the Yankee stadium and Cleveland's municipal stadium involved in a season-long flag battle.

Last night's turnout of 68,258 New Yorkers who watched Joe DiMaggio's grand slam homer give the Yanks a 6-5 edge over the Indians was the third largest to watch the teams struggle.

Play 6 More

The teams play each other eight more games and conservative estimates are that they will draw 275,000 in there for an overall total of over 850,000.

Bobby Feller gave up all the Yankee runs. Tommy Henrich touched him for a two-run homer in the third and DiMaggio belted his with the bases jammed in the fifth. It was D Mags 21st of the year.

The Philadelphia Athletics took advantage of Cleveland's misfortune to advance to within a half game of the lead by nosing out St. Louis in 12 innings 8-7. Hank Majeski's single with the bases loaded and two out turned the trick against Al Widmar long after midnight.

The big noise of the American league again was provided by the onrushing Boston Red Sox who won another doubleheader, stretching their string to eight straight.

Vern Stephens hammered homers in each game to humble the Chicago White Sox. Denny Galehouse shut out Chicago with five hits 3-0 in the first game, his second complete game of the year. Stephens' two-run clout iced it.

Ellis Kinder gave the Chisox eight hits in taking the second 5-3 with Stephens knocking in three runs. The double win boosted the Red Sox past the Yankees into third place, their highest position of the year and only two games out of the lead.

Tigers Blow In Vain

Detroit fell below .500 again bowing to Washington, 9-8 in 12 innings after scoring six runs in the first frame.

Boston's National league lead was boosted to 6½ games when the Braves were rained out at Cincinnati and Brooklyn lost to Chicago.

Johnny Schmitz did his usual job on the Dodgers beating them for the fourth time this year 6-3 although nicked for 10 hits.

St. Louis and New York split a pair that didn't help either club. Sheldon Jones outpitched Murry Dickson for a Giant 6-3 edge in the opener but the Cards came from behind to take the nightcap 7-6.

Pittsburgh trimmed the Phillies 5-3 in the opener but wound up splitting the second game that was stopped by rain after five innings. Ralph Kiner's 27th homer was the only Pirate run in the twin-game.

New Pitcher Joins Marion Cub Staff

Another new pitcher joined the Marion Cub staff today.

He is John Francis 21 of East Cleveland who was recently released from a Chicago White Sox farm in Wisconsin Rapids of the Wisconsin State league.

Francis is a righthander and a graduate of Shaw High school in Cleveland.

Pitchers Bob Adkins and Jim Tingle were released to make room for Francis and Swede Bensen, who joined the club yesterday. Adkins will go to Janesville, Wis. Tingle was released outright by his owners, the Selma, Ala., Cubs.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By The Associated Press

Batting—Joe Dimaggio, Yankees—Belted grand slam homer to spark Yanks to a 6-5 victory over the Cleveland Indians.

Pitching — Denny Galehouse Red Sox—Pitched Red Sox to a 3-0 five hit triumph over Chicago in first half of doubleheader. Red Sox also won second game 5-3.

Marion Country Club Defeats Bucyrus, 41-26

Playing a match play tournament between recurrent rivals Wednesday afternoon a 26 man team from the Country Club downed the Bucyrus Country Club team 41-26. Points were scored on a basis of one for each nine holes and one for the match.

Jim Gallant of the Bucyrus team however shot 75 for low gross score. Johnny Rife of Marion was second with a 76. J. Carlisle of Bucyrus stroked 78 and Barney Buettin of Marion 79.

A return match will be played on the Bucyrus Country Club course August 18.

REDS OPTION HUGHES

By The United Press

CINCINNATI July 23 — The Cincinnati Reds last night optioned pitcher Tommy Hughes to Syracuse of the International league and acquired pitcher Jim Blackburn from the Red-owned Columbia Sally league team. Hughes now is crippled and will not be able to report to Syracuse for at least 10 days. He was obtained from the Phillies last winter in exchange for Bert Haas.

KELLER BACK, BERRA OUT

By International News Service

NEW YORK, July 23—Charley Keller, injured outfielder, was back in the lineup of the New York Yankees today but the team was without the services of Yogi Berra, its regular catcher. Berra split the middle finger of his right hand in last night's game with Cleveland.

Best Weekend Fishing Seen At Charles Mill Reservoir

By The United Press

COLUMBUS, July 23—Charles Mill reservoir which often in the past has run to coarse, rough species of fish, today promised the finest fishing in Ohio for the coming weekend.

Charles Mill, about half-way between Mansfield and Ashland, showed up on the conservation division fishing report as being the top spot in the state with an average catch per fisherman of three fish per hour.

And to show that the lake is getting better for game fishermen, the coarser species like carp and suckers were in the minority.

About 50 per cent of the haul from Charles Mill was in bluegills, with five per cent bass, 10 per cent crappies and 10 per cent channel cats making up more of the catch. The final 25 per cent was in the coarser carp and bullheads.

The anglers who were met on the dock by the division's creel census taker said most fish were caught in the central and southern parts of the lake at five to 10 feet of water with live bait.

In other lakes surveyed the stubby bluegill dominated the picture as usual in Ohio this time of year.

At Leesville near Carrolton fishermen were averaging a little over one fish per hour with most of them being caught in the north and south forks of the lake on both live and artificial bait. They were caught anywhere from the surface to 18 feet.

The division's creel census taker said some bluegills were caught by fly fishermen on the surface in the early morning and in the evening. Most of the bluegills, however, he emphasized, were caught in deep water on live bait.

Fishing was rated good at Seneca lake by the division on the basis of its almost one-and-a-half fish per hour per angler. Buckeye and North reservoir also received that rating on averages of one fish per hour.

At Indian Lake and Jackson, the fishing was called only "fair."

Reading Leaders Agree Dorning Will Win Open

By The Associated Press

READING, Pa., July 23—The four record-equalling professionals gathered for the lead in the $5,000 Reading golf tournament are agreed that the winner will be the man with the most potent driver.

The unanimous opinion of E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, Red Munday Fred Haas Jr. and Johnny Palmer—all tied with 65's after the first 18 holes was that the rolling, well trapped 6,438 yard Berkshire course was a "driver's paradise."

As four were playing them long and straight yesterday when they equalled a course record made only once in the 26 year history of the club. Each was quite impressive Demaret, currently conducting here with Harry Haas an act set the record last year. Demaret of the Calif. shot a 36-34-70 over the first 18.

All but Palmer played every hole in par or less.

Bobby Locke, South African, made the audience ohhh as he blew a four footer that would have tied him with the leaders. As it was the South African had to be satisfied with a 66.

FORMER PILOT DROPS MISSILE NEAR UN

By The Associated Press

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., July 23—An ex-army flier, worried about a new war was sought today as the pilot who dived at United Nations headquarters and dropped a missile which exploded harmlessly nearby.

The UN trusteeship council was in session when the missile behaved by police to be a home-made bomb, went off yesterday near the ground about 400 feet from the entrance of the central UN building.

The blast was heard a mile away.

Delegates and staff members were thrown into a state of excitement. Scores of them rushed to the windows of UN headquarters. Others poured outside as a small yellow-and-orange plane banked and flew away.

Police and one patrolling UN staff member telephoned and cried "We're being bombed. We're being bombed."

A plane answering the description of the one from which the missile was dropped landed a short time later at LaGuardia field.

Its pilot, who identified himself as Stephen J. Supina M, a former B-17 turret gunner of Wilmington, Conn., left the field.

Police sent out a 13-state alarm for Supina on a felony charge of malicious mischief.

At Ashford, Conn., Supina's brother, Former Connecticut State Representative Thomas Supina, Jr., said "Steve has been pretty upset, saying the world is on the edge of another war."

He said his brother may have used a "crazy idea" in an attempt to "wake up the United Nations."
